

GOOD LUCK ON FINALS!

We wish you success on your final exams, scheduled for May 14-20. Here are some tips to help you succeed!

Pre-Test

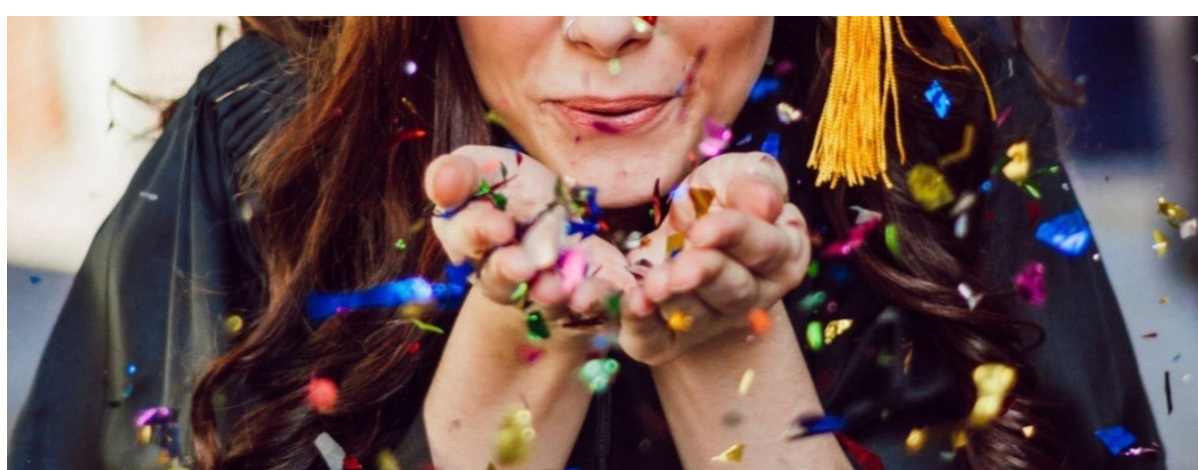

- Access online tutoring support (link to tutoring webpage)
- If available, take practice exam
- Be prepared – study class materials
- Determine when you will take your final exam (link to finals webpage)
- Gather all that you'll need to take the test

Taking the Test

- Find a quiet test-taking spot with minimal distractions
- Check your computer and make sure the location has adequate internet
- Technical problems? Don't panic. Contact your instructor immediately detailing the exact problem.
- Once you're logged in, take a deep breath, relax, and focus
- Don't leave the test page – you may lose all your work
- Plan your allotted time – keep your eye on the clock (set an alarm)
- Give yourself time to check your work and don't forget to click submit

BOOKSTORE UPDATE

Starting June 1, all Los Rios bookstore operations will transition to a new company, Follett. On that date, Follett will begin operating "virtual" stores online to support student summer term needs. Follett will begin operation of physical bookstore locations as soon as we resume on-campus operations and public health dynamics allow for it.

Follett was recently selected by Los Rios because of their commitment to student success and access. Their experience serving California Community Colleges and focus on student affordability will lead to an excellent experience and, significantly, increased course materials savings for our students.

For information on topics like book buyback, textbook rentals and more, please visit the Los Rios Bookstore FAQs.
